

The Reading and Northern Railroad is a progressive regional railroad seeking a hardworking, motivated individual to fill a full time position as a Mechanic within our Mechanical/Engine House department.

A good candidate must possess the following:

- * Mechanical experience and skills
- * Electrical aptitude
- * Desire to expand mechanical skills
- * Ability to interact well with crew members
- * Railroad experience is not required, on the job training is provided.

This will be a fast paced environment with an excellent benefit package and competitive wages. For further information about the position and our company please visit our website at www.readingnorthern.com. You may fill out an application via our website and send resumes to PO Box 218 Port Clinton PA 19549.